The owner of ginger beef house was SO nice when my friend and I were desperately looking for any open restaurant for some warm homey food. It was already past 8:30 but their open sign was on and the lady came out and took us in and cooked us a last minute wonton soup to go. She even threw in a free box of whatever was left from their dinner buffet because she saw that we were visiting town and were really hungry. Over... read more.
