I like this place for local beer which has definitely improved over time. It isn't great if you want quiet conversation because it gets quite loud. The service is excellent the servers are friendly, helpful, and check in frequently. The food is good portions which compensates for the high prices. The tasting board is a great way to start an evening off. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What

Savanna Harris doesn't like about The Woods Ale House:

We were sort of seated/sort of left to our own devices when we came in here one night. We sat at a table for a long time and then thought we might have to go to the counter to order, so we went up and the whole bar area was packed with people and there wasn't enough staff. It was all a disorganized jumble. The food looked good but we had a couple drinks and then left read more.
