We ordered about 6 dishes and were generally pleased with them, especially the breaded shrimp, which was done with a nice light breading not that heavy stuff a lot of places use. Also really enjoyed the ginger beef-lots of flavor! One major miss for us was the Cantonese style chow mein. The noodles were soggy and it had zero flavor... Other than that worth a try if you are in the mood for chinese-prices are average and... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Lee's Village Restaurant Ltd:

We've experienced many Chinese restaurants....this has got to be one of the worst. Lee's was pretty good years ago, don't know what happened. Didn't get much for $100. Ordered two orders of shrimp at 12 bucks each, they stuffed it in one container, and there couldn't have been more than a dozen shrimp. Very stingy on beef and pork dishes. Vegetables tasted stale. Wonton soup was just average, tasted like it was from... read more. In case you're craving some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: exquisite menus, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Spanish dishes with their delicious sweet and spicy sauces and spices are popular among the visitors. Many customers also especially enjoy the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine, and you can indulge in tasty American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
