Small quality bakeries used to be normal. Sadly most have given way to hi volume superstores. Thanks to hard working entrepreneurs like Lucy great breads, buns, cookies and treats are offered daily to the residents of this Southside bakery. Just dive 2 blocks north of Argyll to discover the small strip mall. The produce is always maid daily .It is good quality and reasonably priced.For those who like local flavour an... read more. What User doesn't like about Lucy's Sweets at Hazeldean Bakery:

I had heard that this bakery had "the best apple fritter in Edmonton" So we finally walked over and tried it today. Super underwhelming. It honestly tasted like a day old apple fritter. Pretty dry and crunchy, not the soft pillowy experience I had been expecting. ?And the sauce rolls we bought, pretty dissatisfying after they were clearly a premade product just baked in house.
