As others have stated, you do not eat here for the décor. And to find the restroom you need to wind through the back of the kitchen area. But the chips are great, and the fish is good. Service was very good. Had the medium fish with fewer chips upon arriving in St. John's, a good welcome to Newfoundland. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. What User doesn't like about Leo's Restaurant & Take Out:

This is a local take out place with a back to the futur look. Food is inexpensive and tastes very decent. There's not much service but the ladies are still nice. I was sad that it wasn't homemade tartar... for some reason I didn't expect that... Anyways for the price it's still worth to try it out. read more. If you're desiring some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: delicious menus, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also on the menu, And of course, you should also try the tasty burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges served. guests of the Leo's Restaurant & Take Out appreciate the typical Canadian meals as well, and you can try tasty American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
