This place is also known as Quán chay Pháp uyên. A nice little veggie spot run by Buddhist nuns. The place is nice and clean. Everything was great. You order at the desk and return your dishes there too. We had banh mi, spring rolls, pho and banh xeo. All fresh (the Thai basil and other greens come from their garden around the side of the building.) And very tasty. And very cheap. We made the trip from the west side... read more. What User doesn't like about Dharma Garden Veggie Deli:

Cafeteria style setting for quick, inexpensive, and yummy healthy Vietnamese soup and sandwiches. Staff is friendly. Soups contain good portions of gluten/soy products and noodles. read more. At Dharma Garden Veggie Deli in Vancouver, you get a tasty brunch in the morning and you can at will indulge. Additionally, you save time with the selection of ready-made delicacies, without affecting the enjoyment. It's precisely the freshness and lightness together with the original Vietnamese spices that not only brings tasty menus to the table, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling for a short time, For a snack, you can also have the yummy sandwiches, small salads and other snacks.
