While touring the downtown we visited Freeman's...thinking it was the similar to Freeman's Little New York on Quinpool Rd..... but it had a completely different and more expensive menu. read more. What User doesn't like about Freeman's Bistro:

First visit to Halifax. Got in late due to weather. Bar tender at the Prince George recommended this place for the pizza. The place was pretty deserted at 9.00 p.m.. We ordered pizza and it was really good. The waitress was cashing out and asked if we wanted to do the same now or later. We opted for later. That was a mistake I literally had to call someone over to our table to close our tab. Our old waitress was sitt... read more. Freeman's Bistro from Halifax is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the crispy and crunchy pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven. After all, the environment also plays a role: In this regard, the bistro with its idyllic small size can create the right cozy atmosphere, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
