What User likes about McDonald's: This is a BIG busy frantic McD's. The location next to the TCH and the proximity of hotels, fuel stops and highway junctions creates a hectic atmosphere. The drive through is as busy as a hornets nest, but if you choose to eat inside, it is spacious enough that you'll find large seating, a quiet space to review a paper or something in between, like that soccer ? team that was there the last time I was. I still found... read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its customers, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about McDonald's:

Staff are nice but not the most energetic I have ever met. As well I used to frequent this place often. But now by pass it and go to the one further down the Rd on mountain Rd or Walmart. Small changes seemed to have happened recently, Including having to ask for simple items like salt and pepper. ( and than u get one of each).

Other than that food is what you would expect from Mcdonalds. read more.
