What User likes about Rose Bakery: There is nothing flashy here at this mom and pop eatery...but there IS good quality, well priced food. I have never, in all my travels found Fiteer just like they make in Egypt! What a treat! It's made to order. You get to watch the owner/chef make the fiteer right in front of you. We had a nice hang out with friends while we savoured our fiteer! I'll definitely be back!! There are many bakery treats made in house as... read more. What User doesn't like about Rose Bakery:

This place is now a mixed filipino- canadian bakery with shortbread cookies ( ube-purple cassava), butter and cookies and cream, a bit overmixed since they were very crumbly upon biting, broke apart into pieces. The bibingka- filipino rice cake with salted egg, a bit heavy cooked with banana leaf. Pan de sal ( breakfast rolls similar to dinner rolls) also a tad heavy, it needs more rising time. The cupcakes were good... read more. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Rose Bakery from Mississauga, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a hearty brunch, A catering service offered by the restaurant allows you to eat the dishes on-site or at the festival.
