My wife and I were looking for a place to go and have lunch the other day. We've grown tired of the franchise places that have little or nothing new to offer you for lunch. We'd known of this place but for some reason never got to it. Last Monday that changed. We were warmly greeted, sat immediately, handed menus and asked if we wanted coffee or something else to drink. We got our drinks quickly and took our time to... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Farmhouse Cafe:

I asked for cream for my coffee-the waitress told us they don't have cream, only milk, long black hair in my husbands omelette- we ended up walking out - no wonder there are no customers in this place- the waitress was lovely - felt bad that the owners leave it up to her to explain why they don't serve cream- she said she used to bring it in herself so she wouldn't have to face the complaints, she deserves a better p...
