I read reviews that their fried chicken is the best, and they were right! Tender on the inside, crunchy on the outside, seasoned just right and not greasy. It's really good! Korean BBQ style eating with tiny slices of meat served in miniature dishes. You cook it in front of you according to your liking. Not too inviting from the outside, with very simple decor but the food, service and price is excellent! Some of the d... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Mon Ami - Korean

BBQ:

First off, the service was awfully slow, considering that the resto was not even half-full; we had to wait about 10 minutes just to get menus. The menu wait was a clear indication on how long we would have to wait for our food. The food was mediocre; I had the Bimbambap (not really sure how to spell it) and my wife had one of the noodle selections, and neither one was worth writing home about. It was disappointing, a...
