I've been in this place for over twenty years, while they were on the other side of the street. They were then (before the arrival of Juno and Park) considered number one to show for sushi. Food fresher, originality of compositions, attentive service. Everything's on the date. A little expensive (do not forget that you are on the street Laurier West) but less than the other 2 places quoted in my comment. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Mikado Laurier:

I'm truly surprised! I usually think that perhaps once a restaurant might be off. However, the last few times we have gone to Mikado, they've been off! New management? New kitchen staff? The once wonderful house salad came absolutely swimming in dressing, and not fresh! Our order of hand rolls came as maki, with some apology from the waitress, but with a rather unprofessional attitude. The sushi was not as fresh as i... read more. In the
