Sashimi and yakisoba was really good (though I would have preferred no lemon on my sashimi, or at least on the side). Service didn't blow me away, but I just went in for take-out, so I wasn't expecting much. I did get 2 extra pieces of sushi along with my order - which I didn't know about until I got back to the hotel - so all in all, a good experience. Prices are about average, but you get your money's worth! read more. What User doesn't like about Kim Chi Palace Restaurant:

Been going here for a few years now, mostly with business colleagues and occasionally with family. Never been disappointed with the service or the great tasty food served. Staff greet you upon entry, including the sushi chef, making you feel very comfortable. Try one of the lunch box options on your first visit, gives you a good idea on the quality and taste of a few items! read more. Kim Chi Palace Restaurant from Surrey creates for you tasty sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in addition to numerous other variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare healthy Japanese menus.
