Tried the place for lunch for the first time. Sort of take out/cafeteria style Iranian kebob joint. The people behind the counter was friendly and cheery. Kubideh was excellent and came with fluffy rice and grilled tomato. Their kubideh was just as good as the ones from more upscale Iranian restaurant. Two thumbs up! read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Little House of Kebab:

If you are picky about the environment, if the kitchen smell pushed you back, don't go there. If you like Khoresht Fesenjan, this is the right place for you. This place is called house of Kebab but its Kebab is not really something. But when it is time to pay, when your food is done, check out what you had and the prices, they simply make mistakes and usually people do not check their receipt so you can (or they... The menus of this restaurant can also be ordered at home or at the festival thanks to a catering service. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the delicious, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undeniably closer than one believes.
