Owned and operated by a very friendly couple, he works the front of house and her in the kitchen. Decor is nothing to write home about, pretty simple and run down in fact...but if you want an absolutely delicious breakfast, this is the place!! The omelettes are very good, especially enjoyed the ham omelette! The soup they were serving was homemade came with a fresh baked cheese biscuit...yum!! Do not let the restaurant... Service alone was very slow, and not very friendly, however I will say there must have been a shift change and the younger lady we had finish our table was very friendly. Our food was mediocre, the steak was well over cooked, and the hashbrowns were considerably undercooked. We were not asked how the first few bites were which is service 101. I would find better places to stop for a bite. View all feedback.
