My friend and I came to visit Yellowknife for aurora during cold winter time. Tour guide and our hotel staffs introduced this only one Korean restaurant in Yellowknife downtown (at this moment). At the beginning, I were not in high expectation on...their food. I were craving for spicy hot seafood tofu soup and beef bulgogi with rice. Actually their food are delicious but their portion is small especially the soup... View all feedback. What Jannie Lebsack doesn't like about Korea House:

A cafeteria style eatery where I felt over charged for the 20$ dishes that consisted of 75% rice. The food is tasty but I didn't have nearly enough to say it was worth it. View all feedback.
