A nice change of pace for dinner. You get to pick the items you want in your meal, as much or as little as you would like, They cook it for you right in the main dining area, The staff was pleasant and over all a good meal.

View all feedback. What Hassie Luetgen doesn't like about Mongo's Grill:

A good family restaurant that has a twist. You pick all your ingredients that you think will go well in a stir-fry. The catch? You have to fit it all in a little round bowl. You pick your veggies, meats, and assorted helpings. Then you...lather it all over with your choice of sauces. Give it to the cooks who slave away in front of a big circular flat grill and they stir-fry it for you in front of your eyes. Fun! Add... View all feedback.
