I have eaten several times at Sam's over the past few years when visiting in the Dartmouth area and am never disappointed. With a great menu selection, I have had a number of selections from their dinner menu. The food has been delicious each and every time, the portions are good and the value is great. While this may not be the most trendy looking spot for eating, for a great meal at a reasonable price, it is second... View all feedback. What Marilyn C doesn't like about Sams Seafood & Grill:

Today I went to Sam's and ordered scallops. The meal arrived and the scallops were sitting on a piece of bread where the top was soaked in fat from the scallops. When I pierced the scallop with my fork, the fat was oozing from the side. I immediately called the waitress over and she immediately told me to not return to the restaurant because she remembered that last Fall I complained to her that the batter was underco...
