Parmesans, an Italian restaurant in Vieux Quebec, offers a mixed dining experience. While some customers were disappointed by the lack of authenticity in the pasta dishes and the presence of a loud accordion player, others enjoyed the delicious food, friendly service, and charming atmosphere. The restaurant, known for its ambience and strolling minstrel, is a popular spot for families and tourists alike. The attentive owner, authentic cuisine, and overall pleasant dining experience make Parmesans worth a visit, especially if you're looking for a taste of Italy in Quebec City.
