Acacia Restaurant in Vancouver has been leaving patrons pleasantly surprised with their delicious Bulgarian cuisine served in Fillo pastry. While the atmosphere may be humble, the food more than makes up for it. Diners rave about the flavorful banitzza, a Bulgarian quiche, as well as other vegetarian options. Despite small seating and sometimes overwhelmed staff, the quality of food and charming service keep customers coming back. From poached egg specials to dessert pastries, Acacia is a delightful choice for breakfast or brunch in Vancouver, offering a unique and tasty dining experience that is not to be missed.
