While some found the buffet lacking in flavor and variety, others were impressed by the delicious dishes they ordered off the menu. The service was mentioned positively by many, with some customers even going as far as to give the restaurant a perfect 5-star rating. The homemade sweet and sour sauce was a hit, and the portions were described as large and satisfying. Despite some complaints about the decor and buffet selection, most diners seemed to leave happy with full bellies and plans to return in the future. Overall, the restaurant seems to be a solid choice for those in the area looking for a decent Chinese meal.
