For changing offers, please get in touch via phone or use the contact details provided on the website. A popular spot for gathering with friends and family, this restaurant offers a good selection of wines and beers in a lively atmosphere that's more suitable for socializing and drinks than a romantic dinner. The mussels and fries are highly recommended, though some diners found the portions to be excessive. Prices could be considered steep by some, especially for the quality of food received. While the service has received mixed reviews, the staff is generally friendly and accommodating. The limited menu may not be ideal for everyone, but those who enjoy mussels are sure to find a dish they love. Despite occasional delays in service, patrons are willing to give this place another try for the well-prepared food and pleasant ambiance.
