Some customers were disappointed with the lack of flavor and poor customer service, while others praised the large portions and reasonable prices. The buffet was said to be smaller than expected but still offered a good selection. Some customers highlighted the importance of looking for tourist coaches parked outside, as this usually guarantees a great dining experience. Positive reviews mentioned the delicious food, with highlights including chicken balls, lemon chicken, and beef and broccoli. Overall, while there were some mixed opinions, many customers enjoyed their dining experience at Jubilee and found it to be a hidden gem with delicious food at a good price.
