The local pub, located in a converted century home in the center of town, has been a staple for many residents over the years. While the quality of food and service dipped after new ownership took over a few years ago, recent changes have brought significant improvements. The menu now offers fresher options, with a particular favorite being the souvlaki. While the decor may be in need of some attention, the pub continues to attract a loyal client base with its good pub food, variety of drinks, and relaxed atmosphere. Special nights such as trivia night and 2 for 1 fish and chips night also add to its charm. Overall, the pub is a comfortable little town spot that serves as a go-to destination for many locals and visitors alike.
