Dairy Queen in Wasaga Beach offers a mixed experience, with some diners praising the efficient and friendly staff, while others criticized the slow service and cleanliness issues. Customers enjoyed the food, particularly the chicken strips and ice creams. Pricing was mentioned as slightly high, but the location and accessibility were deemed positive by many. Overall, opinions on this Dairy Queen location are divided, with some willing to return for the good deals and great tasting food, while others were put off by the wait times and quality concerns.
