The restaurant from Toronto offers 23 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average CA$7. The restaurant has gained a strong reputation for serving some of the best poutine in the city, and for good reason. The poutine is served in perfect portions at a reasonable price, with the chef personally ensuring its quality. While some reviewers had minor issues with the size and texture of the cheese curds, overall, the poutine was well-received. The service was quick and efficient, whether dining in or picking up orders. The menu also includes a variety of sweet and savory crepes, adding to the dining experience. One reviewer particularly enjoyed the authentic French crepes made by the friendly owner, making it a must-visit spot for anyone seeking a delicious and filling meal.
